Today we hear how a group of religious leaders try to catch Jesus out but he shows them and us a different way of thinking.

Let's find out more...

God of heaven and earth, your Kingdom
has room for us all.
May we see each other through your eyes.

Amen

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Alleluia, Alleluia, Jesus is the Lord, He's the Lord of all my heart.

We are still and silent as we reflect on God's word for us in the Gospel.

What do you remember from today's reading?

In today's story, we hear how the Sadducees asked Jesus a question. The Sadducees were a group of religious leaders who were from rich families, and they did not believe in resurrection - that people would be raised from the dead to be with God in heaven after they had died.

The religious leaders in today's story loved to obey rules. So they asked Jesus a question to trap him, to catch him out. They asked him about who a woman would be married to in heaven, if she had been married seven times in her life.

But Jesus says that in heaven everything is different from on earth.

Jesus is showing us that our rules only go so far and that his Kingdom is bigger than this world. If we believe in Jesus we see things differently, we see people differently and we act differently. Because we believe that all people are special and loved by God.

How does Jesus help you to think and behave differently?

In this gospel story, Jesus is showing us that God sees things differently to us. We believe that in God's Kingdom everyone is treated equally and fairly, whether they are men, women, girls or boys. However, we know that this doesn't always happen in our world right now. *

Let's think a bit more about treating each other equally.

Can you think of some things that we should all have wherever we live in our world, whether we're rich or poor, whether we're a boy or a girl?

Doesn't this show us that children in every country have the same needs? But does everyone around the world have the things that they need? Is that fair?

Apart from the things we need to live, how should we treat each other at home and at school?

If we all treat each other fairly and as we would like to be treated, perhaps we can start to reflect a little bit of God's Kingdom here on earth.

In silence, pray for each other -
that God will be with all of us.

Today as we learn about God's different way of seeing the world we pray
together:

We pray for the Church:
that it may work to reflect God's Kingdom on earth
in all that it does.

Lord in Your mercy

Hear our prayer

We pray for our brothers and sisters in every country: that we may respect each other and be kind to one another at all ages - as girls and boys, women and men.

Lord in Your mercy

Hear our prayer

We pray for our school, parish, families and friends: that we may treat each other fairly and work together to bring peace upon this earth.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer

Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.

We pray for world leaders,
for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide
their choices.

We pray for the world
that in this moment of crisis,
we may reach out in solidarity
to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways
so that peace and justice
become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world.

Amen

We take a moment now
to pray for our own intentions

We ask Our Lady to intercede on our behalf as we say
together
